

Appendix 2

Water Level Monitoring Plan

Currently, the City of Appleton does not have a written water level monitoring plan. Each year when the wells are inspected by Thein Well, they provide us with a static water level as part of the report. The map on the following page shows the locations of the two wells.

